

Day 1: Thursday 12 October 2017

09:00	Registration
09:30 – 10:00	Overview - The general aspects of open government data, legislative background, purpose, benefits: How to create value from OGD? Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
10:00 – 10:30	Practical and Technical aspects - A national strategy for Public Sector Information concerning Permanent Access and Re-use, Setting the scene Setting the scene for Activities and actions that could be developed in the framework of a National Strategy for e-Infrastructures and digital eco-systems of connected services focusing on Open Data and Public Sector Information concerning Permanent Access and Re-use (PART I) Mr Paolo Budroni
10:30 – 11:00	Towards the European Open Science Cloud – The Data Management Austria: a common vision on how to treat governance, services, data Setting the scene for Activities and actions that could be developed in the framework of a National Strategy for e-Infrastructures and digital eco-systems focusing on Open Data and Public Sector Information concerning Permanent Access and Re-use (PART II) Mr Paolo Budroni
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 12:30	The Italian public administration portal http://www.dati.gov.it/ - how it was designed and which kind of data it contains - practical and technical aspects - strength and weaknesses - transparency and data access - the Italian Code for the Digital Administration (CAD) Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break
13:30 – 15:00	INTERACTIVE SESSION Group work to reveal the needs of participants (What do we want as an end users?) Mr Paolo Budroni
15:00 – 15:15	Coffee Break
15:15 – 16:30	INTERACTIVE SESSION Presentation of the results of each working group Mr Paolo Budroni
16:30 – 17:00	Wrap-up and conclusions

Day 2: Friday 13 October 2017

Chair: Prof. Dr. Türksel BENSGHIR (Morning Sessions)

Mr. Francesco Sciacchitano (Afternoon Sessions)

09:30 – 10:15	General overview on challenges and barriers: how to cope with them? Critical Success Factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - problems related to the electronic identification of users and solutions adopted by the EIDAS Regulation (EU Regulation 910/2014) - the Digital divide and people with disabilities - the Italian Code and how it tackled these problems Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
10:15 – 11:00	Case study: The Project LEARN http://learn-rdm.eu/en/about/ This session aims to define rules of engagement following and possible cooperation scenarios between all stakeholders (incl. industry) following good governance models and policy development and alignment Mr Paolo Budroni
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:30	The Italian Code on Digital Administration: best practice and innovative solutions to effectively implement the e-Government and Open Government strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - tools and solutions to create a unique digital identification system for each citizen - tools and solutions to allow anybody to make online payments - the rules to govern the flow of communication between the Public administration and the enterprises - rules and guidelines for the creations of Public Administration Websites Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break
13:30 – 14:15	Practical and Technical aspects from local Open Data Portals to national transversal and transnational services Architecture, digital workflow model, key aspects, relevant datasets and services. The transnational Projects “Phaidra” (www.phaidra.org) and the national project e-Infrastructures Austria http://e-infrastructures.at/en/home/ Setting the scene for Activities and actions that could be developed in the framework of a National Strategy for e-Infrastructures and digital eco-systems focusing on Open Data and Public Sector Information concerning Permanent Access and Re-use (PART III) Mr Paolo Budroni

14:15 – 14:45	INTERACTIVE SESSION Group work to reveal the needs of participants (What do we want as an end users?) Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
14:45 – 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 – 16:00	INTERACTIVE SESSION Presentation of the results of each working group Mr Francesco Sciacchitano
16:00 – 17:30	Wrap-up and conclusions